(each a "Service") and to DHL Express shipments which comply fully with the restrictions which are described herein.
2. The Guarantee is limited to the one-time refund of the time option surcharge ("Premium") of a DHL Express shipment including the corresponding proportion of the fuel surcharge. This excludes all other payments, including, without limitation, fines, taxes or other charges or amounts as well as transportation charges resulting from returned shipments.
3. In the case of multiple piece DHL shipments, the Guarantee will already apply to the entire shipment, if only one piece of the shipment is delivered late.
4. The Customer must notify DHL of any claim for late delivery in writing or by telephone within 14 calendar days of the shipment date and provide DHL with the account number (if any), the waybill number, the date of shipment, and the complete receiver information. Within 30 calendar days after customer so notifies DHL, DHL shall either

  - provide the customer with evidence of a timely delivery.
5. Customer may not permit any other party to notify claims on its behalf nor assign claims to any other party. The refund/credit by DHL of the Premium to the customer shall constitute a full release of DHL's obligations for any delay under the Guarantee
6. The Guarantee will not apply where late delivery or failure to deliver is due to circumstances beyond DHL's control, as set out in the DHL Parcel / Express National Terms and Conditions applicable to national shipments and in the DHL Terms and Conditions of Carriage (T&C) applicable to international shipments - including customs delays, inaccurate or incomplete shipment information, delivery instructions or information (such as P.O. Box for receiver address, missing or inaccurate receiver telephone number), or receiver's request for delay, shipment diversion or non-standard clearance services, or unavailability or refusal of the receiver to accept delivery or to pay duties and taxes against delivery if requested.

7. All other provisions of DHL Parcel / Express National Terms and Conditions applicable to national shipments and in the DHL Terms and Conditions of Carriage apply. The Guarantee is subject to modification or cancellation by DHL at any time. A notice period of 14 days will be observed.
8. If a customer has an extremely time-sensitive shipment, the loss or delay of which may result in consequential damages, the customer must contact his own insurance agent or broker to insure against such risks, as DHL does not assume such liabilities. DHL does not provide and will not arrange such shipment insurance.
9. The Guarantee does not apply to:
  - i. shipments linked to clinical trials where temperature sensitive packaging is being used,
  - ii. the extra charges applicable to any optional service sold with the shipment
  - iii. temporary exports or imports,
  - iv. shipments with high value contents that require formal customs clearance, or
